HELEN ROBINSON GRAVES

Mrs. Claud P. Graves, natige of Alabama, who is making her home in Clearwater, Florida, is an active member of many patriotic and civic organizations. Mrs. Graves is sponsor for Alabama Genealogical Society, Inc. PUBLICATIONS , No. 31 and No. 32.

Mrs. Graves is a Founding Fellow and Florida State Director of the Southern Society of Genealogists.

In 1951 Mrs. Graves was Regent of the Clearwater Chapter, DAR, and she saw the need for a night DAR Chapter. As a result of her efforts the Cary Cox Chapter was formed. Cary Cox was the Revolutionary ancestor on whose record Mrs. Graves' mother joined DAR, although she herself was "put in" by her mother on John Evans. Mrs. Graves became a DAR in 1919. She has six bars, and she says her mother started it all with her wonderful records and writing, all of which, unfortunately burned at the home of a brother after the passing of her mother in 1922.

Mrs. Graves was Organizing Regent of Cary Cox Chapter and registrar since 1954. She organized Lachaway Chapter, Daughters of 1812 in Tampa, Fla., and was its first president, then registrar, and now treasurer. She helpwd organize Aqua Clara Chapter DAC and has been secretary for 8 years. She belongs to Daughters of Colonial Wars, Colonial Dames of the 17th Century, Founders and Patriots of America, Magna Charta Dames, Americans of Royal Descent, Florida Society of the Dames of the Court of Honor, and United Daughters of the Confederacy. She is a Real Daughter of UDC.

Mrs. Graves is a member of Pythian Sisters, past president of Beta Unit, Clearwater, of National Association of Parliamentarians, was charter member of Altrusa Club of Birmingham and then a member of Clearwater, charter member of League of Women Voters, and a member of Eastern Star.

Mrs. Graves trained as a nurse. She is a former teacher of nursing in Alabama and Florida, and has served as Director of Education in hospitals and in Washington with Red Cross. She was very active in Nursing in World War II. She is a Baptist and loyal to her church and its organizations.

She calls herself a "Family Genealogist", and is compiling her family records, hoping to put them in book form. She is a charming, cultured person with many interests and much enthusiasm. She is an inspiration to her many friends.
